School attendance regulations

The regulations concerning compulsory school attendance can be found in Chapter 7 Sections 1–23 of the Swedish Education Act (SFS 2010:800). Children resident in Sweden are obliged to attend school. However, compulsory school attendance does not apply to children permanently resident outside Sweden (Section 2). School attendance becomes compulsory the autumn term of the calendar year in which the child turns six (Section 10). Obligation to attend school normally ceases at the end of year 9 of 9-year compulsory school or compulsory school for pupils with learning disabilities (Section 12). Parents/guardians of a child of compulsory school age must ensure that the child completes his/her compulsory schooling (Section 20). The City of Solna (the home municipality) is to ensure that children of compulsory school age who do not attend its compulsory schools or compulsory schools for pupils with learning disabilities receive the required education in some other way (Section 21). The City of Solna has an obligation to ensure that the pupils attending its compulsory schools or compulsory schools for pupils with learning disabilities complete their compulsory schooling (Section 22).
